

Integrative-Learning Judging Criteria

Category	Description	Questions to Ask Yourself (not all may apply)
Presentation Design	Clarity, organization, references, impact, intellectual stimulation, interest, and creativity.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Does my poster look professional?</li> <li>• Is it well-organized and easy to follow?</li> <li>• Have I used too many words or fonts that are too small?</li> <li>• Is my poster aesthetically pleasing?</li> <li>• Did I include images, charts, and/or graphics?</li> <li>• Are my references properly formatted (in-text citations, reference list, and cited images)?</li> <li>• Do my references represent a wide range of quality and trusted information?</li> <li>• If it is a group project, is it obvious that everyone contributed?</li> </ul>
Learning Connection	The degree to which the project is clearly integrated into the course or advances the course objectives.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How were the objectives from my syllabus connected to my project?</li> <li>• Did I state this clearly on my poster/video?</li> <li>• Did I summarize the content learned in a two-to-three-minute video?</li> <li>• How did my project relate to my course?</li> <li>• What concepts from class discussions or readings apply to the issues addressed by my project?</li> </ul>
Impact	Value of the project to discoveries, observations, improvements, and connections to professional or civic goals.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Why was this project important?</li> <li>• How well did I explain my impact?</li> <li>• What did I improve, explore, discover, observe, or change?</li> <li>• What capacity or benefit did it help build?</li> <li>• What past experiences did I connect to ongoing professional and civic goals?</li> </ul>
What I Learned (Reflection)	Clearly explain what was learned and how that learning will inform future endeavors. Reflection connects your HIP experience with coursework and transforms experiences into learning.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Did I include an example or explanation of my/our self-reflections?</li> <li>• How will I incorporate the feedback I received through this project?</li> <li>• What evidence is there of structured reflection?</li> <li>• Did my ethical reasoning strengthen?</li> <li>• Am I more competent in a specific skill?</li> <li>• What inquiry or analysis technique did I use?</li> <li>• Did I gain interpersonal skills or aptitudes?</li> <li>• What did I learn from teamwork or problem-solving?</li> <li>• How did my involvement in the project foster my sense of civic responsibility?</li> </ul>