

Frequently Asked Questions

Click on a question to jump to the answer!

What is the UCF Virtual Majors Fair?

Who is the Virtual Majors Fair for?

Who can I expect to assist me with exploring and learning more about the majors that UCF has to offer?

Will there be any UCF resource offices at the Virtual Majors Fair?

Why are there different times for me to RSVP for the event?

Do I need to stay and attend the Virtual Majors Fair the entire time (11am-2pm)?

Can I “dip in and out of” the event as needed?

What happens if I cannot attend a specific session due to time constraints, schedule conflicts, and/or etc.?

What happens if I miss my RSVP'd starting time for the Virtual Majors Fair?

Where can I go, or who can I talk to, if I get lost while navigating the Virtual Majors Fair navigating the event?

What if I don't get to connect with the college/major that I am interested in, and/or the resource offices I would like to speak with, during the Virtual Majors Fair?

What if the major and/or college I am interested learning more about isn't listed to attend the event?

What if I'm confused or still don't know what major I want to declare after attending the Virtual Majors Fair?

Who can I talk to before the event for any questions or concerns that I may have before or during the Virtual Majors Fair?

What is the UCF Virtual Majors Fair?

Hosted by the Knights Major Exploration and Transition Center, the 2020 UCF Virtual Majors Fair is a fully online experience that connects you directly to academic colleges and resource offices to learn more about the majors and minors offered at the UCF. You will have the opportunity to explore the various majors at UCF by being introduced to critical components of the major decision-making process, in addition to being connected directly with academic and faculty advisors to learn more about majors offered at UCF!

Who is the Virtual Majors Fair for?

It is for all UCF students! Everyone is invited to attend this event as an opportunity to learn more about the many majors offered at UCF! This event will provide a virtual method for you to connect with participating college and department advisors to ask any questions you may have regarding majors offered at UCF.

Who can I expect to assist me with exploring and learning more about the majors that UCF has to offer?

The Virtual Majors Fair will feature advisors from each college advising office at UCF who can provide information and overviews of majors offered through respective colleges. Additionally, you can expect to see representation from different major departments within some of the colleges to get detailed information regarding certain majors.

Will there be any UCF resource offices at the Virtual Majors Fair?

Yes! In addition to meeting with college and department advising offices, you will have an opportunity to meet with the following UCF resource offices:

- Knights Major Exploration & Transition Center: Explore UCF major options available with a Major Exploration Advisor
- Career Services: Learn about resources and receive advice regarding steps towards exploring a career path
- Experiential Learning: Discuss potential Co-op, Internships, and Experiential Learning opportunities available at UCF
- Pre-Health and Pre-Law Advising: Uncover the pathways towards acceptance to Medical and Law programs after graduation at UCF

Why are there different times for me to RSVP for the event?

Different times were offered to provide students the opportunity to meet the event if schedules interfere. Each College, Department, and Resource office in attendance will provide a small presentation about their areas via Zoom followed by Q&A every half-hour starting from 11am until 2pm.

Do I need to stay and attend the Virtual Majors Fair the entire time (11am-2pm)?

No, you are not required to attend the entire event if you do not wish to do so. The goal of the Virtual Majors Fair is to allow you the freedom to interact with various UCF Colleges, Departments, and Resource Offices to gather information about different majors, careers, and resources that can be utilized to make sound decisions regarding your future path!

Can I “dip in and out of” the event as needed?

Yes, once you go through the introduction link for the Virtual Majors Fair, you will be able to move through and interact with any participating offices that you see fit as the event takes place!

What happens if I cannot attend a specific session due to time constraints, schedule conflicts, and/or etc.?

If you are unable to meet with a particular college or department, you can find contact information for each advising office at UCF to reach out to for further information here: <https://academicsuccess.ucf.edu/ssa/advising-offices/>

What happens if I miss my RSVP'd starting time for the Virtual Majors Fair?

Not a problem! If you miss your RSVP'd starting time, you will have an opportunity to still participate in the Virtual Majors Fair! There will be a Zoom room available for anyone who shows up 'late' to the event or misses their RSVP'd time. Once you 'arrive' to the event, you can click the link the introduction Zoom link on our website anytime up until 2pm to participate.

Where can I go, or who can I talk to, if I get lost while navigating the Virtual Majors Fair navigating the event?

There will be a specific Zoom room that you can log into to get some help on the Virtual Majors Fair Website that is accessible anytime during the event! Reach out to our office via email or phone during the event if you are having trouble participating:

- Email: kmetcoutreach@ucf.edu
- Phone: 407-823-3165

What if I don't get to connect with the college/major that I am interested in, and/or the resource offices I would like to speak with, during the Virtual Majors Fair?

Don't worry! You will receive a series of links containing resources and contact information for the different offices in attendance after the event is over. Information for each office prior to the event will be available online, so that you can access this information at any time. The link to current participating college advising offices can be found here: <https://academicsuccess.ucf.edu/ssa/advising-offices/>

What if the major and/or college I am interested learning more about isn't listed to attend the event?

If a major that you are interested in is not listed at the event, you will still have an opportunity to speak with someone regarding your potential major interests. Advisors from the Knights Major Exploration & Transition Center will be available to provide you with any general information you may need to learn more about any majors you are interested in, and how to connect with the college/department advising offices for further information. As a reminder, the general list of college advising offices that will attend the Virtual Majors Fair can be found here:

- <https://academicsuccess.ucf.edu/ssa/advising-offices/>

What if I'm confused or still don't know what major I want to declare after attending the Virtual Majors Fair?

You will have an opportunity to speak with a Knights Major Exploration & Transition Center Advisor anytime during the event to talk about potential next steps on exploring a major, in addition to advice on how to utilize major exploration resources to determine a major path. If you are still struggling with deciding on a major, reach out to the Knights Major Exploration & Transition Center to meet with a Major Exploration advisor via:

- Email: kmetcoutreach@ucf.edu
- Phone: 407-823-3165

Who can I talk to before the event for any questions or concerns that I may have before or during the Virtual Majors Fair?

At any time, you are more than welcome to reach out to the Knights Major Exploration & Transition Center to connect with one of our expert advisors to discuss major exploration! To contact or schedule an appointment the KMETC office, reach out to us via:

- Email: kmetcoutreach@ucf.edu
- Phone: 407-823-3165