Academic Support Services at A Glance

Group Peer Tutoring

Group-based peer tutoring to undergraduate UCF students. No appointment is necessary and schedules can be found on website or at tutoring locations on campus. Subject areas include: Accounting, Statistics, Chemistry, Biology, Physics, Engineering, Computer Science, Human Physiology. Tutoring sessions are offered online and in-person.

Supplemental Instruction (SI)

Weekly study sessions for historically-difficult undergraduate courses. Attendees average 1/2 to one letter grade higher on midterms and final grades. Subject areas: Chemistry, Biology, Physics, Genetics, Anatomy, Physical Science, Engineering, Computer Science, and selected Mathematics sections. SI sessions are offered online and in-person.

Academic Coaching & Engagement (ACE)

Academic coaches help program participants develop important academic and life skills such as organization, time management, goal setting and study skills. ACE Coaching sessions are offered in-person and online.

Academic Success Workshop Series

A free workshop series focusing on college level learning and study skills such as: avoiding procrastination, time management, notetaking, final exam preparation, and overcoming test anxiety.

Study Union

Each fall and spring semester, SARC partners with UCF's Student Union to provide UCF students with academic support and final reviews sessions during final exam week.

Online Resources

SARC has many study skills tools to help students determine where they are in their learning, and to improve in specific courses. Visit academicsuccess.ucf.edu/sarc to learn more.

One-on-One Peer Tutoring

SARC offers individual peer tutoring for students enrolled in undergraduate courses in STEM, Business or Spanish. Appointments are held exclusively online and must be scheduled in advance. Please note you can only make appointments for classes you are currently enrolled in.
