

Division of Student Learning and Academic Success
College of Undergraduate Studies

Advisory Board

Kameron Kaviani

CFO, Progressive Debt Relief

CEO, DTO Property Rentals

Owner, Magnolia Bar

Kameron is a husband, father of three, business developer/investor and sport enthusiast. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree at the University of Central Florida, while playing for the Knights football team for a short stint prior to injury. Kameron has experience working in both private and public school secondary education, while teaching American & World History, Biology & Environmental Science for 14 years. While as a teacher, Kameron also coached both football and high school basketball. Kameron was the youngest coach in Florida to reach 300 wins as a high school basketball coach and won several awards while serving in that role.

Kameron is passionate about business development, financial advising and real estate investing. He has also owned businesses related to the arts. Kameron has produced multiple films and albums, while owning companies that also managed both musicians, speakers, and authors. He is currently the CFO of PDR, LLC, CEO of DTO Property Rentals, and Owner of the Magnolia Bar in downtown Orlando.

Additionally, Kameron has founded the K&D Legacy fund (sponsoring students at the Burnett Honors College students at UCF), been an active donor to UCF athletics, a Founding Circle Member of “Making the Difference Outreach”, along with many other local charities. Kameron is an active philanthropist and believes in transforming communities by giving back to local organizations, including his alma mater, UCF.